

When Alistair Griffin originally conceived the idea of releasing “Forever Today” to commemorate the 10th anniversary of Robin Gibb’s passing, he also let it be known that he was considering the possibility of including the song on a tribute EP, rather than just as an isolated single release. Since then the feedback, not just from his own supporters but also from Bee Gees’ fans determined to keep Robin’s name alive, has been so enthusiastic that the project has now turned into a full blown album!

“Forever Today - A Tribute To Robin Gibb” will be released shortly before 20th May, and as well as featuring the new finally completed version of “Forever Today”, the album will include Alistair’s own versions of these eight (and possibly one more) other Gibb compositions, with the emphasis being firmly placed on songs where Robin’s vocals were particularly prominent:

- Forever Today (there will be a full-length video for this which includes tasteful references to Robin’s influence, and you can watch a short preview of it here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6NSqbB0FfYw>)
- I Started A Joke
- Massachusetts
- I’ve Gotta Get A Message To You
- How Deep Is Your Love
- Saved By The Bell
- My Lover’s Prayer (new version)
- Country Lanes

Note that the CD version will include exclusive bonus tracks (including an instrumental version of Forever Today) and will be a limited release with the final quantity to be determined by advance orders. There will also be a separate download link for pre-order of the digital version, but that won't be active until the tracks have been uploaded, and so won't be available until nearer the release date.

(Robin & Alistair at the Berlin Tempodrom on 21st September 2004 which was taken by Bee Gees fan Oliver Volkhammer whose wonderful image will be used by Alistair as part of the artwork for this album)

Pre-orders for the CD version are now being taken though, and can be placed here <https://www.musicglue.com/alistair-griffin/products/forever-today-a-tribute-to-robin-gibb>. These will cost £11.99 plus postage, which would be an additional £2.85 (UK), £4.75 (EU) or £5.75 (elsewhere). The only way to guarantee that you will be able to obtain what is sure to become a collector’s item is by placing a pre-order, which also provides the best opportunity to see Robin’s name appear in the charts again!

The closing date for pre-orders will be Friday 6th May, but please don’t leave it until the last minute before ordering as there’s no time like the present, and note that when doing so you’ll also have the option to buy a lyric print too!